Breach of this policy

When we consider that a breach of this acceptable use policy has occurred, we may take such action as we deem appropriate.

Failure to comply with this acceptable use policy constitutes a material breach of the terms of use upon which you are permitted to use the Football NI app, and may result in the IFA taking all or any of the following actions:

- Immediate, temporary, or permanent withdrawal of your right to use the Football NI app.
- Disciplinary action
- Issue of a warning to you.
- Legal proceedings against you for reimbursement of all costs on an indemnity basis (including, but not limited to, reasonable administrative and legal costs) resulting from the breach.
- Further legal action against you.
- Disclosure of such information to law enforcement authorities as we reasonably feel is necessary or as required by law.

We exclude our liability for all action we may take in response to breaches of this acceptable use policy. The actions we may take are not limited to those described above, and we may take any other action we reasonably deem appropriate.

Which country's laws apply to any disputes?

If you are a consumer, please note that the terms of this policy, its subject matter and its formation are governed by the Law of Northern Ireland. You and we both agree that the courts of Northern Ireland will have exclusive jurisdiction.

If you are a business, the terms of this policy, its subject matter, and its formation (and any non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by the Law of Northern Ireland. We both agree to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Northern Ireland.
